Partial Index – Death Notices Book

This book contains roughly chronological death notices clipped from newspapers 1920 – 1947. Most of the notices, which are pasted onto pages, are from Los Gatos newspapers and other local newspapers. There are notes and accounts of ambulance services, purchase of caskets, embalming charges, and etc.

The creator of this book is unknown. Book was a gift to LGPL by Charles Bergtold in 2006.

DEATH OF HENRY N. MORRIS

Henry N. Morris died at his home here June 14 after a brief illness. The remains were taken to Berkeley Tuesday by the Place Funeral Home and the funeral took place from the home of a son of the decedent, W. B. Morris. Interment was made in Mt. View cemetery in Oakland. Mr. Morris was a native of Columbus, Ohio, and was 60 years and 19 days of age at the time of his death. He was prominent in the financial and religious affairs of Oakland for many years, being at one time receiver for the California Bank and later vice president of the Central National Bank. He took active part in church and Y. M. C. A. work. He came to Los Gatos about three years ago on account of his health, and appeared to be steadily gaining, but shortly before his death he contracted a severe cold, from which he was unable to rally. He is survived by his widow, two sons and one daughter.

The names of the children of decedent are: Mrs. Alice M. Cerry, F. H. Morris and W. B. Morris.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 3.—The funeral service for Mrs. Mary Hemphill, wife of Dr. John Hemphill was held at "Maryland," the family home, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Hemphill had lived asimple Christian life and the service was as she would have wished it, beautiful in its simplicity, conducted by Rev. Henry H. Wintler and Dr. John Dinsmore, and attended by intimate friends and neighbors. At the close the remains were taken to Cypress Lawn and were interred there at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Hemphill was born in San Francisco and has resided in Los Gatos for ten years. Her home, "Maryland," which she created, is one of the most beautiful spots in this city.

She underwent an operation at Lane's hospital some time ago and when it was found that she could not recover she asked to come home to die among her friends. She fell asleep on Tuesday night at 10 o'clock.

Spine Is Fractured In Runaway

LOS GATOS, May 6.—Dr. Criswell, proprietor of the Wake Robin inn, near here, suffered injuries to his spine which may cause permanent paralysis of his hips and legs when his team of horses whic hhe was driving ran away on Novitiate road, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, the wagon in which the doctor was riding being overturned, throwing him to the roadway with great violence.
According to information received late this afternoon from the O'Connor sanitarium, where the injured man was taken in the Place ambulance, that he is suffering from a fracture of the spine and a dislocation of one vertebrae. He is being attended by Dr. J. Shepard of San Jose and Dr. Franklin of Los Gatos.

Tree Surgeon Hurt When Branch Falls

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, May 9.—Fred Suydam Jr., of North Santa Cruz avenue, a tree surgeon, while doctoring a tree at the home of Mrs. E. J. LOS GATOS LOSES BELOVED RESIDENT

Captain Shuler, Civil War Veteran, 94 Years Old, Died Sunday.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, April 3.—Captain Benjamin P. Shuler passed away on Sunday, following his wife, Mrs. Abbie Shuler, whose death took place just a month before to the day.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) at 3 p. m., from the Place Funeral home in charge of E. O. C. Ord post, No. 82, G. A. R., of which he was an honored member. Captain Shuler, who has been a resident of Los Gatos for the past 26 years, would have been 94 years old in September, had he lived. His life record is an enviable one, as up to about two years ago he was very active in all that makes a good citizen; since that time he has been in failing health.

He enlisted at the very first of the civil war and was made captain of company H, ninth Minnesota volunteers, and served through the four years of that bitter struggle. After the war he was made a member of the Minnesota legislature and still later served for four years as United States Indian agent, in the Chippewa tribe. Mr. and Mrs. Shuler first came to Los Gatos as visitors and the lure of the Santa Clara valley soon brought them from their eastern home to settle in the Golden West. Since living here he has served as district judge and town trustee. He was a life member of the Masonic order, a member of the Odd Fellows for 70 years and a member of the Loyal Legion, an organization composed of officers of the civil war. In 1913 the Shuler's celebrated their golden wedding with a reception at the Masonic hall which is still spoken of as one of the big affairs of Los Gatos.

SHULER—In Los Gatos, Cal., March 2, 1922, Abby Elizabeth Shuler, beloved wife of Benjamin P. HOLD SERVICES FOR MRS. LUCY STILES

Remains of Los Gatos Resident Will Be Taken to Iowa for Burial. Place

LOS GATOS, Aug. 26.—Funeral services were held this afternoon at the residence of S. D. Balch at Los Gatos for Mrs. Lucy Maria Stiles, who died here last Thursday. The services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Wintler, assisted by Rev. John Collins. The remains will be taken to Mason City, Iowa, by her great grandson, Carl Stiles Balch, and will be buried beside her husband and daughter.

Lucy Maria Stiles was born March 30, 1832, at Ponton, Lincolnshire, England. In 1852 she came to the United States, residing in Racine, Wisconsin, for several years, where she was married, in 1857, to Perley Goddard Stiles.

Since the death of her husband and her only daughter, 26 and 27 years ago, she has made her home with her son-in-law, C. A. Cosgrove, of Minneapolis, and her two granddaughters, Mrs. Lucy Cosgrove Balch of Los Gatos, California, and Mrs. Frances Cosgrave Reiniger of Seattle, Washington, both of whom survive her, together with five great-grandchildren, Carl Stiles Balch, Mary Frances Balch, William Cosgrave Balch, Charles Robert Reiniger, and Jack Reiniger.

During the whole of her long lifetime—90 years—her loving and lovable personality won her warm friends wherever she went. No one ever met her, even briefly, without realizing the strong spirituality and sweetness of her nature, and feeling uplifted, and to know her intimately was one of life's blessings.

The funeral service for Miss Nettie L. Kershaw was held at 2:30 today from the Place funeral home, Dr. A. C. Shephard, pastor of the decedent, officiating, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Penny Mallory, accompanied by Mrs. Winifred Robertson, who sang most beautifully "The City Four Square" and by Rev. A. Sterling of the Christian church who made the closing prayer. Interment was made in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Nettie L. Kershaw was born near Concord, Ill., January 28, 1862 and died at the University of California hospital on December 9, 1922.

She came to California in August, 1902, since which time she has been a resident of Los Gatos. She will long be remembered by the people of this community as the quiet, dignified lady who for about ten years had charge of the rest room at the Civic Center and who was unfailing in her courtesies and kindnesses to those who visited the place. The rest room was closed this afternoon to honor the memory of its late matron.

Of a kindly disposition, ever ready to help others, always faithful to her duties, ever a consistent Christian, she lived a life of beautiful self-sacrificing service and wore the white flower of a blameless life. She had been a member of the local Methodist Episcopal church for over 20 years and is held in highest esteem by those who have been associated with her in church work through these years. She was also an honored member of Hesperian Rebekah lodge. Beautiful floral pieces from the Civic Center, the Rebekahs and many friends marked her resting place.

She is survived by three brothers, Robert Kershaw of Los Gatos, John Kershaw of Concord, Ill., Joseph Ker-

LOS GATOS MAN ENDS OWN LIFE

Jul 4-26

Thos. E. Elmgren, Stock Salesman, Found Dead in Hills in Santa Cruz Mts.

Coroner Amos O. Williams was called to Los Gatos yesterday morning where the body of Thomas E. Elmgren had been found by an employe of the Los Gatos Novitiate in a gully off the Snell road about one and one-half miles from the Novitiate.

The man had committed suicide by shooting himself through the forehead with a .45 calibre revolver which was found in his hand. He had been dead for over 24 hours and probably nearer 48 hours, according to the coroner and E. E. Place, Los Gatos undertaker, who took charge of the body.

Identification was made through means of papers found on his body. He was a stock salesman. The only money on his person was a one-cent piece in a purse in his pocket.

He lived at 57 Alpine avenue, Los Gatos and has a wife, Florence; two daughters, Alice and Geraldine, and two sons, Thomas and Richard. The wife and daughter, Alice, are employed at the home of Attorney H. Ray Fry at Saratoga, the son, Thomas, is working on a ranch near Mt. Hamilton, the daughter, Geraldine, is also at work, while the youngest son is being cared for at the home of J. M. Wolfe in Los Gatos.

The family came to Los Gatos about one year ago from the Mt. Hamilton district where it is reported they had lived for four years, the wife teaching in a school there.

Up to a late hour yesterday none of the members of the family had been notified of the tragedy as they were all away from the places where they are employed.

An inquest will be held some time today at the Place Undertaking parlors in Los Gatos.

PIONEER WOMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Vienna Bell Turner, a pioneer settler of California passed away at her home on Glenridge Avenue May 2. She was in her 94th year, and was a resident of California for 67 years, 19 years of which she lived in Los Gatos. The funeral was conducted at Cypress Lawn Chapel in San Mateo County on May 4 at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Turner was born at Sanford, Maine, August 30, 1833, of old New England stock. Her grandfather was a member of the Massachusetts legislature when it ratified the Constitution. She was married to Cephas Turner in 1859, and came to California by way of the Isthmus in 1860. Mr. Turner had been a resident of San Francisco since 1850.

Mrs. Turner was a Daughter of the Revolution, and a member of the Unitarium Church of San Francisco. During her long life she was very much interested in the evolution of household lighting, communication and travel. She saw the changes from tallow dip candles, whale oil lamps, camphine oil, coal oil, and gas to electricity. She remembered well the early travel in stage coaches.

She was the mother of the late Geo. W. Turner and Arthur C. Turner, and grandmother of Mrs. Hans Lisser and Mrs. Charles MacKenzie.

HEMORRHAGE AND SHOCK KILL MAN

Automobile Plunge Off Grade Near Los Gatos Is Proved by Jury.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, August 19.—Shock and hemorrhage killed J. B. Balcomb, 59, Palo Alto owner of Chemeketa Park subdivision in the Santa Cruz mountains, when the machine he was driving skidded from the Bear Creek road near the Santa Cruz county line and crashed to the bottom of a gulch Thursday night. Such was the verdict of the coroner's jury in Santa Cruz county today, upsetting the report that Balcomb died of a broken neck.

The other two occupants of the car are recovering from slight cuts, bruises and from the shake-up. Otherwise they were uninjured. They were Mrs. Grace Soules of Los Gatos, manager of Chemeketa Park, and E. Levin of San Jose.

Levin, a passenger in the car, was being shown a piece of property in the subdivision. The machine got beyond the driver's control in soft dirt on a sharp turn. It turned over as it plunged down the grade.

Balcomb leaves a widow and six children in Palo Alto. He was one of Santa Clara county's well known real estate men.

SCHOOL BOY DEATH IS HELD SUICIDE

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, May 5.—"Suicide" was the verdict of Coroner Amos O. Williams in an inquiry conducted this morning into the death beneath the wheels of a Southern Pacific train last night of William C. Baker 17-year-old Oakland schoolboy.

The body was removed today to Oakland where services will be conducted by Clarence H. Cooper. No indication of the cause of the boy's act was given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Baker of Oakland. Baker is a San Francisco steel salesman.

The boy had lived here about two months with his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Baker. At 5:23 last evening he walked on to the Southern Pacific train tracks in front of the southbound train and calmly lay down while horrified onlookers stood helpless as the locomotive passed over his body. Engineer R. S. Coburn applied air brakes but was unable to stop the train in time. Death was instantaneous. The Place funeral home had charge of the body.

1 KILLED, 1 HURT WHEN CAR ROLLS OFF BASIN ROAD

Rescuers Employ Ropes To Bring Victims From Deep Canyon.

11-10-35

A San Francisco negro was killed when the car in which he rode plunged over a 200-foot cliff on the Saratoga-Big Basin road last night and in San Jose, Harry W. Wenzell, 53, was injured in an auto collision at Sunol and San Fernando streets.

Crushed when the coupe in which he accompanied Dezzie H. Hunt, also colored, hurtled over the precipice and was literally ground up as it smashed over boulders into trees, Frank L. Conway, 45, was pronounced dead on brought to Los Gatos by the Place ambulance.

With Hunt, the driver, Conway was brought to the rim of the road by members of the forestry patrol, stationed about a half mile below the Skyline boulevard, near the redwood gates of Big Basin.

RESCUED BY ROPES.

Let down over the 200-foot cliff by ropes, the rescuers extricated the two men from the wreckage and hauled them to the rim of the road. Hunt, a San Francisco postal employe, was brought to the county hospital by Place's ambulance and, after receiving emergency treatment for head and leg injuries, was transferred to his home at 949 Clay street, San Francisco.

Dazed by the crash, the driver was unable to explain the accident but it was believed by forest patrolmen he had lost control of the car on a curve while viewing the scenery.

Brought to the Place Funeral Home in Los Gatos, Conway was later transferred to a San Francisco mortuary. An employe of the Southern Pacific company, Conway lived in the Liberty hotel at 429 Kearney street, San Francisco. He was a member of the American Legion post No. 435 of that city.

Holy City Man Stroke Victim

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Nov. 27.—Chris A. Dirol, night watchman at Holy City, dropped dead at 11 o'clock last night, having apparently been in good health up to the moment of his death.

According to acquaintances at the picturesque little mountain community near here where he had been a watchman for the past six years, he ate a good Thanksgiving dinner, and showed no sign of illness.

A native of Austria, Dirol was 70 years of age. Before coming to Holy City he had been a railroad employee. An accident had cost him his right arm.

After being brought to the Place funeral home here, the body was turned over to Coroner C. C. Spalding. It is not known whether any relatives survive.

Driver Discovers Body Dragged 2 Miles Under Car

In a drizzling rain on Santa Cruz highway last night, Dr. Stanley M. Innes stopped his car near Lexington, thinking he had struck something in the road.

The probing beam of his flash light revealed an empty expanse of wet pavement.

Climbing back into the car. Dr. Innes, a chiropractor of 464 South Seventh street, drove the two miles to Los Gatos, stopped in front of a restaurant to telephone police.

Illumination from the cafe lighted the street beneath the wheels, showing a body tangled in the undercarriage. Mar 1938

It was identified as that of Thomas Forcade, about 55, a Los Gatos gardener.

Los Gatos police told Sergeant Robert Byers of the highway patrol they had received a call a drunken man was staggering on the road, near the spot where Forcade was struck.

Driver Discovers Body Dragged 2 Miles Under Car

In a drizzling rain on Santa Cruz highway last night, Dr. Stanley M. Innes stopped his car near Lexington, thinking he had struck something in the road.

The probing beam of his flash light revealed an empty expanse of wet pavement.

Climbing back into the car, Dr. Innes, a chiropractor of 464 South Seventh street, drove the two miles to Los Gatos, stopped in front of a restaurant to telephone police.

Illumination from the cafe lighted the street beneath the wheels, showing a body tangled in the undercarriage. Mar 1938

It was identified as that of Thomas Forcade, about 55, a Los Gatos gardener.

Los Gatos police told Sergeant Robert Byers of the highway patrol they had received a call a drunken man was staggering on the road, near the spot where Forcade was struck.

Death Comes To Descendant Of Early Navy Hero

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 10.—Funeral services for Charles Preble, 84, civil engineer, journalist, and great-grandnephew of Commodore Edward Preble, famed early naval officer, were held today at Oak Hill Memorial park, preceding cremation.

The descendant of a family which established itself in America in 1636 died Saturday night in a hospital in San Jose.

Preble was born in Boston, where the frigate Constitution, flagship of Commodore Preble in the war against Tripoli in 1803 and subject of Oliver W. Holmes' poem, "Old Ironsides," still is docked.

At the age of 10 he sailed to California by way of Cape Horn. He was graduated from the University of California 1870 as one of that institution's first graduates.

As a civil engineer, he worked as surveyor general of Nevada many years. At one time he owned the Reno Gazette. For 15 years before coming to Los Gatos in 1930 he was internal revenue collector for the city of Oakland.

Preble was making his home with a daughter, Mrs. Norman G. Stines, on Rogers road, at the time of his death.

He leaves another daughter, Mrs. Donna Preble of Berkeley, one granddaughter and six grandsons, among them Norman Stines Jr., a former Los Gatos boy now traveling South America as a journalist. Preble had several great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Mae Eckhardt

Dr. T. J. Gambill conducted the funeral Friday from the Place Funeral Home of Mrs. Mae L. Eckhardt, who died late Wednesday. The soloist at the funeral was Mrs. Estelle Clark.

Mrs. Eckhardt, who was born in Los Gatos and who had spent all her life in this state, was the sister of Mrs. Rose L. Mineo, Ezra Lancaster of Monterey, and the late John H. and Ruth Lancaster. The deceased was the widow of the late John Eckhardt, and the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lancaster.

Fatal Accident on New Road Shows Need for Division

The safer you make 'em, the more accidents you will have on the highways. The new super-safe Santa Cruz highway, four lanes wide, claimed its first fatal accident Sunday, a couple of weeks or so after its dedication, when Albert Juster, 26, of 2271 Turk street, San Francisco, plunged over an embankment near Redwood Estates. 7-23-39

Ten persons were injured, two seriously, in addition to the Juster death, during the week-end traffic on the new highway.

Four hours before the Juster accident, Mrs. William Parker, 19, and Alvin Huckaby, 20, San Jose fruit workers, were seriously hurt when their car smashed into the bank near Inspiration Point.

Juster died almost instantly, when his car skidded. His mother, Mrs. Yetta Juster, 53, was treated at the county hospital for head injuries. His wife, Eva, 22, and Miss Lilliam Romberg, sustained bruises.

Fatal Accident on New Road Shows Need for Division

The safer you make 'em, the more accidents you will have on the highways. The new super-safe Santa Cruz highway, four lanes wide, claimed its first fatal accident Sunday, a couple of weeks or so after its dedication, when Albert Juster, 26, of 2271 Turk street, San Francisco, plunged over an embankment near Redwood Estates. 7-23-39

Ten persons were injured, two seriously, in addition to the Juster death, during the week-end traffic on the new highway.

Four hours before the Juster accident, Mrs. William Parker, 19, and Alvin Huckaby, 20, San Jose fruit workers, were seriously hurt when their car smashed into the bank near Inspiration Point.

Juster died almost instantly, when his car skidded. His mother, Mrs. Yetta Juster, 53, was treated at the county hospital for head injuries. His wife, Eva, 22, and Miss Lilliam Romberg, sustained bruises.

Suicide of Young Matron Mystery in Park Avenue

5-28-40

Mrs. Helen Sprigg, 23, attractive young matron and member of St. Luke's Episcopal church choir, was found dead in her bed Tuesday afternoon. Apparently she had shot herself through the head half an hour before. She and her husband, William Sprigg, cashier at Goodwill Industries, for two years had rented a cabin from John Fox, 90 Park avenue.

No note, nor any period of depression gave warning or explanation of her death. She joyfully expected the birth of a baby in September, and a few hours before her death had seemed gay spirited to Mrs. Leona Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fox.

Sprigg had been granted a week's vacation, and was off for the day, returning a couple of hours earlier than he at first planned, said Mrs. Beattie.

Some months ago Mrs. Sprigg was saved from blindness by a cataract operation. She and her husband rejoiced over her recovering her sight.

Rev. David Todd Gillmor will conduct funeral services today, Thursday, at two o'clock from the Place Funeral Home.

An inquest will be held Monday at two o'clock at the Place establishment.

Widow Of Early Fruit Rancher Laid To Rest

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, June 22.—Los Gatos' foothills, which she loved so well, today received the remains of Mrs. Nancy Harling Hill, 89, whose husband, Levi, was one of the first fruit ranchers on San Jose avenue on the cutskirts of town in the early days.

When he died about 20 years ago, she moved to Los Angeles, where she died early this week. She was a native of Kentucky.

A son, Joseph, who survives, once managed Heald's Business college in San Jose a number of years ago, now is engaged in the lumber business in the southern California city. He and his wife were here for the burial, arrangements for which were handled by the Place Funeral home.

Also surviving is a married daughter, Laura, of Oakland, but efforts to locate her in time for the burial in Los Gatos cemetery were unavailing, it was reported at the funeral home.

Mrs. Hill was related to the well-known Joaquim family of Campbell.

Salesman Killed in Moody Gulch

After lying helpless, four or five hours, near his wrecked automobile at the bottom of Moody Gulch, Joseph C. Silva, part time bartender and woolen salesman, Tuesday morning was hauled up to a waiting ambulance, but died on his way to the hospital. The body was taken to the Place Funeral Home. Interment services will be held Saturday at 10 a. m., in the Santa Clara Catholic cemetery.

W. H. Lingfelter, Moody Gulch oil man, at 4:30 a. m. heard a big crash, but the wreck was not seen until seven o'clock, when D. A. Collins, another resident, was on his way to the Alma post office, and thought the car was an old wreck. On his way home, Collins investigated. The Place ambulance and Gateway garage tow car responded. When the ambulance reached Los Gatos, Dr. M. B. Jorgenson was consulted, and pronounced Silva a corpse.

The deceased is survived by a wife, Olive, a waitress, and a son by a former marriage.

County Auto Mishaps Bring Death to Three

Weekend Traffic Claims Big Toll; Two Die Sunday

Death went into "overdrive" along Santa Clara County highways yesterday and Saturday as thousands of freewheeling motorists and their aging cars swarmed onto over-taxed roads and created a traffic monstrosity which claimed the lives of three persons and injured 15.

Killed yesterday were Mrs. Irene Fitchie, 54, of 60 Sumner St., Santa Cruz, and Louis Vargas, 46, address unknown. Also dead was Lloyd Hill, 19, Rte. 1, Box 115-A, Cupertino, crushed in the wreckage of his automobile when it crashed into an abutment on Steven's Creek Road late Saturday night.

Mrs. Fitchie was instantly killed while riding in a car driven by her husband, Russell. It crashed head-on with another automobile, driven by Louis D. Null, 656 Vincenti St., Berkeley, on the Santa Cruz-Los Gatos Road near Huber Road.

Both Fitchie and Null were seriously hurt in the accident. Fitchie was treated at the County Hospital and later removed to Sister's Hospital in Santa Cruz. Null, who also received emergency treatment at the County Hospital, was undergoing surgery at the San Jose Hospital late last night.

Mrs. Fitchie's body is at Place's Funeral Home in Los Gatos where funeral arrangements are pending.
